

Historical Metallurgy Society
AGM Summer Meeting
Power and Control over Metallurgy Production
Saturday the 8th June 2019

9.00-9.50	Registration
9.50-10.00	Welcome
10.00-10.20	Sophie Adams	Powerful or Powerless metal: Late Bronze Age hoards in the southeast.
10.20-10.45	Nathaniel L. Erb-Satullo	Parsing power and production in the metal economies of the South Caucasus
10.45-11.10	Break
11.10-11.35	Ethan Greenwood	Invasion Iron – the control of Iron production in the Weald.
11.35-12.00	Yaxiong Liu	Iron and the Qin empire: an exploration of possible connections between the iron industry and the rise of the Qin state during Warring States period
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.30	HMS AGM
13.30-13.55	Pieta Greaves	Fit for a King. Reconstruction of the Staffordshire Helmet
13.55-14.20	Eleanor Blakelock	Craft working at Anglo-Saxon Rendlesham, is this the location of the royal palace workshop
14.20-14.45	Ole F. Nordland	Political power and iron making in Viking Age Scandinavia (c. AD 750 – 1000) (Title TBC)
14.45-15.15	Break
15.15-15.40	Justine Bayley	Medieval urban metalworking – control or anarchy?
15.40-16.05	Paul Rondelez	Evolution in ownership of Irish ironworks in the 17th and 18th centuries
16.05-16.30	Richard Williams	State sponsorship of technological change in Prussian Silesia in the late 18 th Century.
16.30-16.40	Closing speech

The HISTORICAL
METALLURGY
 Society